Mrs Theodore Roosevelt

Dear Madam.

I know you will forgive the liberty I am taking when I explain my motive. I want Mr Roosevelt to take Warburgs Tincture for his jungle fever, and as I am a married man, take this means of bringing it to his notice. It can be procured of any first class drugstore. I am not in any way connected with the sale of it, and have nothing to gain. I am simply a railroad man, a locomotive engineer, who contracted the Chagas fever while working on
