

have honored in other years in old I will not suffer wrong so fearful to be done if he can prevent it I know not what can be done, or what is best to be done.

I throw myself on your superior wisdom, and believe you will do what you can either to have the case reexamined - the punishment suspended or in some way so modified as that it will not work the sad results it must in its present form. Your Iy heart would burn within you could you but know one half of the truth of matters in Mo., and the hostile, deadly effort made to destroy our church, our beloved and cherished Methodists, by insult and abuse of her ministry. And what makes it almost insupportable is to receive
