

of food & clothes supplies on Sunday morning and remained without sleep & rest until Tuesday night when the lost named man was away. The Battle of Chancellorsville had been fought and the situation fast to be destroyed. I ^{never} ~~then~~ followed the ~~score of the coming~~ ^{advised} for Col Hacker an Army major and with it led to the almost met the Battle of Antietam, on the morning of the 17th Sept. and remained until my suppers and strength were both exhausted, and returned to re-supplying myself and ~~return~~ ~~for the~~ with ~~with some~~ ^{with} meat if possible the evening go the battle at Harper's Ferry - as I needed the meat and am very crowded the day, and I felt, coming from the diet, and feeling the all the way down the mountains to Harpers Ferry where I came ~~here~~ with the to Washington - Genl. Stuyvesant by his and special request take charge of my team, which I joined again at Washington, a few days before the battle, at the conclusion I lost my post at the Long House and with the exception of two days when I formed company to winter supplying in Groton etc

- by I remained there until the harshness of ^{during} ~~winter~~ ^{season} ~~season~~ until they were all taken away I believe my services have been faithful I know they have been learned and appreciated. I I have chosen my own position and I then mounted it when he has to stand by the side of the the bullet and the ^{city} hospital
